

Privacy Policy

Last modified March 5, 2018

In an effort to ensure the security in the collection of information Triple4's privacy policy aims to explain what information we collect from the user, why this information is necessary as well as how the information collected will be used.

1 Collection & Use of Information

User information is collected by means of a comprehensive online form which the user must complete and submit to Triple4. Information may also be collected through third-party sites including but not limited to LinkedIn.

Information submitted through the completion of the online form includes but is not limited to the users name, email address and phone number.

This information is collected in order to personalize the user experience, improve customer service and follow up with users after correspondence submitted through the online form or phone inquiries.

2 Data Security

All information submitted to Triple4 is treated with the highest online security standards in mind, we do not ask for or share any sensitive information i.e. credit card data, ID numbers or Passport numbers. We value your privacy and have implemented an SSL certificate on our website.

3 The Use of Cookies

Triple4 uses cookies to compile aggregate data about site traffic and site interactions in order to offer better site experiences and tools in the future. We may also use trusted third-parties who act on our behalf.

4 Third Party Links

Occasionally at our discretion we may include or offer third-party products or services on our website. These third-party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

5 Third Party Disclosure

We do not sell or trade personally identifiable information to outside parties.
